Club Facilities

New members should be aware that the Club has a good selection of books and DVDs in the library and these can be borrowed for a nominal fee. The Library is run by Michael Proops.

The Club shop offers a wide range of pen blanks, abrasives and finishes at very competitive prices. The shop is run by David Mackin.

An offshoot of the Club is the WPWT Craft Group.

Members attend various craft fairs and markets to sell their work. For more details contact one of the committee.

If any member cannot attend on the night they are "on duty" will they please make arrangements with the next people on the list to exchange nights with them. Will each group make their own arrangements regarding milk? Tea and coffee will always be in the club box in the storeroom.

Jokes of the Month

A Yorkshire man and his wife walked past a swanky new restaurant last night.

"Did you smell that food?" she asked.

"Wonderful" he replied, and being the 'Kind Hearted Yorkshireman' he thought "What the heck, I'll treat her" So they walked past again.

A fireman was working on his engine outside the fire station, when he noticed a small boy in a little red wagon with small ladders hung off the sides and a garden hose coiled in the middle. The boy was wearing a fireman's helmet and the wagon was being pulled by a dog and a cat.

The fireman walked over to take a closer look.

"That's a nice fire engine you have" the fireman said with admiration. When he looked closer he noticed that the boy had tied the wagon to the dog's collar and to the cat's testicles.

The fireman said "I don't want to tell you how to run your engine, but if you were to tie that rope to the cat's collar I think you could go faster.

The boy replied thoughtfully, "You're probably right, but then I wouldn't have a siren"

Thanks to Peter Schofield for these.
